Fly America and Open Skies Agreements

For more information visit: https://travel.slac.stanford.edu/fly-america-act

- Are you flying between the U.S. and a foreign country using federal funds?
  - Yes
    - Are you traveling to a foreign country funded by the Department of Defense (DoD) or Secretary of a military department such as the Air Force or Army?
      - Yes
        - You may use Open Skies Agreements as an exception to Fly America. Other exceptions could apply.
      - No
        - Are you traveling to a European Union (EU) country, Iceland, or Norway? This includes flights that originate, terminate, or alight in those countries.
          - Yes
            - You may use an EU carrier, a Norwegian carrier, or an Icelandic carrier.
          - No
            - Are you traveling between:
              1) the U.S. and Australia?
              2) the U.S. and Japan
              3) the U.S. and Switzerland?
                - Yes
                  - Unless you qualify for another exception to Fly America, you must take a U.S. Flag flight
                - No
                  - You may fly a U.S., Japanese, Australian, or Swiss carrier to and from those countries and to and from the U.S.

- No
  - You must take any available U.S. carrier service unless you meet one of the other exceptions